DIVISION ADVISORY
No. 096, s. 2026

To: Elementary and Secondary Public School Heads
All Others Concerned

Subject: DEPLOYMENT OF ON-THE-JOB TRAINEES (OJTs)

1. This Office informs all concerned that, in support of the partnership between the Schools Division Office of Balanga City and the Philippine Women's University (PWU), On-the-Job Trainees (OJTs) from the Diploma in Nursing Technology Program will be deployed to selected schools within the Division to complete their required internship hours beginning June 18, 2026.
2. Each identified school shall be assigned approximately three (3) to four (4) trainees, who are required to complete a two hundred (200)-hour supervised On-the-Job Training Program. During their deployment, the trainees may assist in school health and nutrition activities, learner health monitoring, records management, and other related tasks under the guidance and supervision of the school administration and designated personnel.
3. The list of schools and the corresponding names of trainees assigned to each school is provided in Enclosure 1, which forms an integral part of this Advisory.
4. In this regard, all concerned school heads are respectfully requested to extend the necessary support in accommodating, guiding, and monitoring the assigned trainees throughout their deployment period. Such assistance will significantly contribute to their professional development and practical learning experience.
5. Immediate dissemination of and compliance with this Advisory are desired.
